

A close-up, profile view of a large tortoise, likely a Galapagos tortoise, moving across a sandy desert landscape. The tortoise's head and neck are in the foreground, showing its wrinkled, greyish-brown skin. Its large, dark eye is visible. The shell is a dark, mottled grey with distinct scutes. The background is a clear, bright blue sky above a flat, golden-brown desert floor.

You may live to be 103

Will your money last that long?

Investments are not FDIC-insured, nor are they deposits of or guaranteed by a bank or any other entity, so you may lose money. Past results are not predictive of results in future periods. You should carefully consider the investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses of the American Funds. This and other important information is contained in the funds' prospectuses, which are available from a financial professional and on the Web. Please read the prospectuses carefully before investing.

Lit. No. MFGEP-005-0408P Litho in USA CGD/CL/8218-S10181 ©2008 American Funds Distributors, Inc.

Post office requires first class
postage